ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAMS

HAVAS AGENCY

Madrid, 13th.

The Government have begun legal proceedings against 16 newspapers of this city and of the provinces for over-stepping the limits of the Press Law. These papers had published violent articles against the Spanish Government, and during the diplomatic conflict with Germany had incited the people to upset the authorities.

Berlin, 13th.

Large numbers of foreigners, considered dangerous to the peace of the State, have been expelled from the Eastern Provinces of Prussia. Their principal cause of banishment is affiliation with the Socialist party.

Marseilles, 13th.

Monseigneur Forcade, Archbishop of Aix, has succumbed to cholera.

PRESS TELEGRAMS.

Tucuman 14th—Advices from Monteagudo report an attempt to murder Dr. Irigoyen. The would-be assassin has been caught and imprisoned. It appears that his name is Lorenzo Diaz. He fired two revolver shots at the Presidential candidate at the railway station, where he made himself the centre of attraction by his vociferous cheers for Juarez Celman.

Dr. Dardo Rocha's candidature will be solemnly proclaimed on the 29th inst. The ceremony promises to be well attended.

Santiago del Estero 14th—Last night at 11 o'clock several individuals accompanied by policemen broke into the printing establishment of the Pais. They then set about to destroy everything that came under their hands and finally set fire to the place. The miscreants then fled and left behind them some important clues.

Great indignation prevails in political circles and it is to be hoped the affair will be properly investigated by the authorities who seem to attach little importance to this barbarous act.

Rosario 14th—The demonstration in San Lorenzo in favor of the Gefe Politico Fayo passed off quietly enough. The demonstration was not of political character and many of the "manifestantes" were foreigners.

A report was afloat last night that Spain had declared war against Germany. The Spaniards were in a high state of excitement. They have decided to make a demonstration but the authorities, no doubt, will prevent this foolish step. The worthy Iberians are thinking of raising money to purchase a war-ship which they intend presenting to the mother-country.

M. J. Benurgas has left for Buenos Ayres, having arrived here yesterday morning.

Montevideo 14th—The Chilian Minister M. Montt will give a magnificent reception on the 18th inst. on the occasion of the anniversary of his country's independence.

The Catholic Club gave a concert last night which was largely attended.

The death is announced of Sta. Enriqueta Alayo. Deceased belonged to one of the wealthiest and best known families here. Her death will be much felt in high social circles.

The Gefe Politico, M. Brian, is completely recovered from his late attack of illness. He attended his 'despacho' to-day.

Dr. Alem, it appears, intends coming down to take part in the electoral struggle.

Dr. Garbiso is very ill. It is feared he is fast losing his head. The Italians intend giving festivities on the 20th inst. The Duke of Lucignano, Italian Minister, will preside at the Cibils Theatre.

The Aguirre theatrical company will remain to give three performances. Every night Solis Theatre is crowded.

Telegrams from Minister Antonini, with reference to the spreading of cholera in Italy, are anxiously awaited.

A Spanish house received a telegram this morning stating that war with Germany hangs on a thread.

The Gironde is expected.

Nothing new in political circles.

PEACE.

Yesterday our Spanish colleague published a most grateful bulletin, announcing the amicable settlement of the Carolinas Question, and the Madrid telegram of yesterday's date which announces the peaceful response of the German Government to the Spanish ultimatum, will be read with deep interest by all who cling to the hope that war is not the natural state of man.

Madrid, 14th.

Germany has replied by telegraph to the ultimatum, stating that she abandons the Island of Yap and the occupation of the Archipelago. The Emperor and King have come to terms.

The Spanish marines in Yap are exculpated from all responsibility, having merely obeyed the orders they received.

It is believed that this happy termination of this burning question is due to the wisdom of Prince Bismarck, who was unwilling to break off friendly relations with Spain and the Canovas Government, and the moment he saw that Spain was in earnest he desisted, and frankly declared that the Spanish sailors in Yap were not to blame, having only done their duty to their monarch, their country and their flag.

Here ends the telegram. We for our part congratulate the Spaniards on the pluck and decision they showed in the matter, and which has won from the invaders the fullest recognition fo Spanish rights. Castilian honour is not to be trifled with, and it is difficult to decide in the finale of this question which power has won most, Spain by retaining her Islands or Germany by her great moral victory.

BAHIA BLANCA MOLE.

On our table is to be seen a beautiful photograph of the new Railway Mole, with hydraulic lifts, which we received yesterday from Messrs. Muggeridge & Lightholler, shipbrokers of that port, and we invite those of our readers who have properties down there, to call at our office and inspect the picture.

This splendid mole, the work of the Buenos Ayres Great Southern Railway, is, we believe, superior in cost, construction, and workmanship to any other mole in this Republic, and is a noble monument to British capital and British enterprise in this Republic. We do remember some 4 years ago when visiting Bahia Blanca with the late General Villegas, how we had to land in the 'arroyo' and hop from brick to brick through a floundering cangrejal, where, if by chance you missed stepping on the brick, you went up to your neck in soft mud. The progress of Bahia Blanca since then (Dec. 1881) is indeed great. It has now railway, mole, saladero, and perhaps 200 new houses, all the offspring of private companies and private capital. As for the Government we see nothing save the wooden shanty down near the pier for the port Captain to indicate the expenditure of a National dollar on the place. Bahia Blanca progress owes nothing to any Government, and we call attention to the matter to shew how infinitely better is it for the country, when private capital is allowed full scope and fair play, instead of Government works, and Government contracts, and Government privileges, which stifle even the very commerce which they pretend to foment, and it is not merely in the town and port of Bahia Blanca, that one notices the march and triumph of private Capital and enterprise but away out in the camps, that stretch from Azul and Olavarria to the Napostá, the same ceaseless energy is obvious. New estancias, new colonies, new sheep farms, new wire-fences, everything around testifies to the energy and industry of the people. That the wave of progress that has raised Bahia Blanca, will soon extend to the Rio Negro, we do not for one moment doubt, since in a trade point of view Patagones and Biedma possess infinitely greater advantages and resources than Bahia Blanca. If the Southern Railway people but understood their own interest, they would make every effort to continue their trunk line to Patagones, since they would then possess one of the greatest arteries of trade in the whole River Plate, but it takes a long time to persuade people in London to take a River Plate view of River Plate affairs. We have the Central Argentine Railway shareholders now bemoaning their hard fate in missing the extension to Sunchales, which certainly of right belonged to that company, but they slept whilst the country was moving on around them. So also with the Buenos Ayres Great Southern, whose legitimate terminus is on the left bank of the Rio Negro, and in the town of Patagones, but the trade traffic and importance of a line connecting Patagones with Bahia Blanca, are more apparent to people here than in London, and some fine day if the Great Southern Railway Directors do not stir in the matter, the concession will be taken by others as in the case of the Sunchales Railway. The valley of the Rio Negro will yet be one of the most peopled and productive districts of the Plate. The Germans, Swiss, and Italians are flocking in thousands down there. We have seen at the late National land auction that the lands of the Nauquen realized 14,000 nats. per league. The climate is infinitely more adapted to Europeans than Santa Fé or the Gran Chaco, and to connect that valley by rail with Buenos Ayres is to our mind a scheme that should take precedence of all others.

THE RICHMOND COLONY.

Congress has thrown out Mr. Richmond's proposal to buy, stock, settle, and colonize 100 leagues of land on the South bank of the river Santa Cruz, starting from Beagle point due West, ten leagues front by ten leagues deep.

The terms proposed by Mr. Richmond seem to us to have been fair and liberal enough, and the committee to whom the matter was referred, and who studied it in all its bearings were also of the same opinion. Yet Congress has thrown it out, chiefly owing to the opposition raised by Mr. Calvo, who, in view of the enormous increase of sheep in the Falkland Islands, considers that the farmers of those Islands will pay as much rent per annum as Mr. Richmond offers to pay for the fee simple.

Mr. Richmond offered to pay in five years 250 Nats per league to the Government for the land, to settle within 5 years 200 families, foreign emigrants, and to stock the land with 50,000 sheep, 1000 cows, and 1000 mares, and to give to the Government in the centre of the land 4 sq. leagues for the purposes of a town etc. To fully appreciate the true value of Mr. Richmond's proposal it is only necessary to study well the map and scan the lonely, desolate coast, the out of the way locality of the proposed colony, and contemplate the generations that must pass away before that country is peopled by civilized men, unless Government does something to induce settlements in such forlorn parts, and we cannot agree with Mr. Calvo or with Congress in opposing and rejecting an enterprise in which so few, save Mr. Richmond, would willingly embark. To our view Mr. Richmond, or anyone else who proposes to put life into those remote districts, should receive the free grant of the land from the Government, instead of paying 25,000 Nats down for a desolate, howling wilderness, and Mr. Calvo, who has such great experience, should have taken a broader view of this question, and explained to Congress, how in the thirty long years that have elapsed since he sat as Senator of Buenos Ayres, Santa Cruz is the same now as then, and will for the next hundred years remain so, if such narrow views are allowed to hold ascendance in Congress.

The prospect of the Falkland Islanders buying up the Santa Cruz lands is a new departure in the brains of our legislators. Five years have now elapsed since a representative Englishman of the Falklands applied to Dr. del Viso to rent the peninsula Valdez, but nothing ever came of the business, owing to the difficulties here and the want of capital abroad, and Valdez has slept for another 5 years, and will probably sleep for another 100 years, if the country itself does not foment the enterprise essential to call it into life. Santa Cruz is a still less advantageous spot, and to people and stock the camps down there is an ambitious dream, which merits support rather than opposition from Congress.

The Government we, believe, has started some kind of a colony at Santa Cruz at a very considerable expense, but Mr. Richmond's proposal would cost the country nothing, and he would have peopled, stocked, and settled 100 leagues within the fixed term of five years. Mr. Richmond is, however, before his time; the day will yet come, when men like Richmond will be taken by the hand by our statesmen and in every way assisted, and till then Santa Cruz and its pasture lands must sleep.

PRICES AND GOLD SUPPLY.

(By M. G. Mulhall, F.S.S.)

> "The common argument that there will not be enough gold to carry on the trade of the world with, does not stand a moment's examination."—JEVONS.

The progressive fall in price, and the alarm connected with the declining yield of the gold-fields of the world, constitute a matter of primary importance to a commercial nation like ours. I purpose, with the utmost brevity, to examine the question under four heads:—I. The rise and fall of prices since 1850. II. The relation between gold supply and prices. III. The causes that operate on price levels. IV. The prospects of prices in the future.

I. THE RISE AND FALL IN PRICES.

In the Appendix to this paper the reader will find a table of prices in Great Britain for twenty principal articles of commerce in the last 103 years, from which anybody can construct the usual index numbers, when the result will be found as follows:—

TABLE A.

Years.	Index Nos.	Years.	Index Nos.
1782-90	2,000	1841-50	1,914
1791-1800	2,572	1851-60	2,035
1801-10	3,264	1861-70	2,190
1811-20	3,187	1871-80	2,092
1821-30	2,171	1881-83	1,870
1831-40	2,114	1884	1,797

There was a steady rise from 1790 till 1810, followed by a rapid fall after 1820, and a gradual decline between 1830 and 1850; then came another period of rise, and now we have a fall to a lower level than experienced since 1782.

The rise which began at the outbreak of the Crimean War culminated in 1864, since which date there has been an almost uninterrupted decline. If any person will take the trouble, as I have done, to compute what the gross import and export trade of Great Britain would have been in each year since 1854, at the scale of prices for the decade 1841-50, and compare the same with the actual amount as given in the Board of Trade Returns, he will find as follows:—

TABLE B.

Year.	Trade in millions £: According to 1841-50 Scale.	Trade in millions £: Board of Trade Returns.	Ratio: Scale of 1841-50.	Ratio: Board of Trade Returns
1854	242	249	100	103
1855	231	240	"	104
1856	274	289	"	105
1857	279	310	"	111
1858	275	282	"	103
1859	296	309	"	104
1860	323	347	"	108
1861	319	342	"	107
1862	307	350	"	114
1863	298	396	"	133
1864	287	435	"	152
1865	318	437	"	138
1866	348	484	"	139
1867	363	456	"	126
1868	392	475	"	121
1869	403	485	"	120
1870	459	503	"	110
1871	505	554	"	110
1872	528	611	"	116
1873	516	626	"	121
1874	529	610	"	115
1875	548	598	"	109
1876	567	576	"	102
1877	578	593	"	103
1878	582	562	"	96
1879	602	555	"	92
1880	662	634	"	95
1881	670	631	"	94
1882	695	655	"	94
1883	731	667	"	92
1884	718	623	"	87

It appears that the maximum rise (52 per cent. over the level of 1841-50) was near the close of the American war, and we have, moreover, evidence that prices in the United States (measured in gold) rose much higher than in Great Britain. The prices of 18 principal articles in that country ("Dictionary of Statistics," p. 375), enable us to fix the index numbers, and to compare the price levels with those of England.

TABLE C.

Years.	U. States. Index Nos.	Price Level: U.States.	Price Level: G.Britain
1841-50	1,800	100	100
1851-60	2,251	125	106
1861-70	2,802	155	114
1871-80	2,395	133	109

The fall in prices, therefore, during the last decade has been much less in England than in the United States, and when people talk of uniform depression of prices all over the world, they use an incorrect mode of expression, for the industries of all countries are not affected alike. In Canada, for instance, the price level has actually risen, the fluctuations since 1854 having been as follows:—

1854-59	100	1871-80	121
1860-70	112	1881-83	120

Taking the world, however, on the whole, we find that prices rose in 1861-65 to a level 30 per cent. over that of 1841-50, and that the last twenty years have seen a steady decline.

GENERAL NEWS.

(From our own Correspondent.)

August 13.

"My dear ———. You ask me whe-
"ther I have expressed approval of
"the recent action of "the Pall-Mall
"Gazette with regard to the questions
"which have been occupying so much
"attention.
"I have expressed no such approval
"&c. &c. &c."

This is a quotation from a letter of the Archbishop of Canterbury. You will find it all in the Gazette of last night. For my part, I am sick of the subject, and I can assure you if, like anyone else, I can do you the subject at "three-and-six," if people want it, I have never yet had the curiosity to read through "The Maiden Tribute of Modern Babylon." The morality of dirty little girls interests me much less than those traits of character in the English middle classes which such sensational subjects are apt to expose. Mr. Stead himself is a thorough Englishman, as full of juice as Mrs. Maloney's fowl, and, I am sure, he meant well. His clerical supporters, who seem half-inclined to deny him thrice, are less honest than he is, and, as for General Booth and "Lily," that question is being worked out by Lloyd's Paper and the St James's Gazette, and promises, so far, to be inconvenient to the General. But, like the clericals, the St. James's' Gazette, in vindicating English notions of morality, is really actuated by other motives. My hope is, that the attractive question, now pretty well used up, will be of as much service, in exposing to ourselves, as a nation, our own hypocrisy.

In general news there is very little to record. The Houses of Parliament have passed a vote of thanks to the Army of the Soudan, and Lord Wolseley is to be made a Viscount. The Conservatives do not grudge honours to the soldiers and officers, but they are rather angry with the Government for putting itself so completely in the shoes of its predecessors as to appear to condone a dismal failure in honouring the troops; and, as for Lord Wolseley, they do not see why he should be treated as if he were the victor fresh from Copenhagen or Talavera.

The doors of St. Stephen's are still open, and yet every one speaks and writes of the session as already over.

Lord Randolph Churchill has been down in Dorset giving an electioneering speech that might well be called the first shot in the coming campaign. The speech was decidedly smart, and, even for him, unusual inveracious. One might take the trouble to pick out sentence by sentence and each wriggling lie, as one would a perriwinkle on a pin; but as Lord Ripon has not condescended to reply to Lord Randolph, and as the Times of this morning declines to treat his Lordship as a person or his gabble as worthy of notice, and as Punch has invented a string of Churchillisms, such as that "blooming Viceroy," etc., I think we can pass over the Secretary for India.

THE LATE FIGHT IN THE PARK.

The Committee of the Turf Club has done justice in solemn conclave (Lord Barrington in the chair) concerning the matters at issue between the Earl of Lonsdale and Sir George Chetwynd. General Owen Williams at once offered a humble apology to the Club on behalf of the noble peacebreaker, and an equally humble apology to Sir George Chetwynd was also read. In consideration of these humble apologies, Sir George Chetwynd has been requested to withdraw his resignation of membership, and Lord Lonsdale has been allowed to do the same. General Williams has, I am credibly informed, written a letter to Lord Lonsdale in which he expresses a hope that, in consideration of the clemency extended to him, he will carefully abstain from any "reflections" on Sir George Chetwynd, and frankly confesses that he shall feel himself personally responsible if any further provocation is offered. A proces verbal has been duly posted in the Club, and nobody seems inclined to quarrel with the very general opinion that Sir George Chetwynd has come well out of a very trying ordeal. It is to be hoped that Lord Lonsdale is sufficiently grateful to Lord de Rochschild, Mr. Henry Chaplin, and General Owen Williams.

The following notice is posted up at the Turf Club:

"Lord Lonsdale having apologised to Sir George Chetwynd, and Sir George Chetwynd having accepted the apology, Lord Lonsdale will be permitted to withdraw his resignation of membership of the Turf Club, and Sir George Chetwynd is requested to withdraw his resignation of membership."

It is said that the Prince of Wales interfered directly to bring this about, but many persons consider that it is not a question of whether Sir George Chetwynd is satisfied with an apology, but whether Lord Lonsdale, having committed an outrage on public manners by striking Sir George Chetwynd in a public park, ought to be allowed to remain a member of a club. Some twenty-five years ago Major Gordon and Captain Kane had a similar game of fisticuffs in the Park, and they were both turned out of their club for it.—World.

ROSARIO.

(From our own Correspondent.)

September 11th

The electioneering excitement is becoming fast and furious, like the fun of the 'hellish rabble' that Tam O'Shanter witnessed through the window of the ruined kirk. Let it not be supposed I am making odious comparisons; I am far from saying that we have such unblushing characters amongst us as Mdlle Cutty Sark; but if we make Tammy's old grey mare represent the people, I am afraid they will come off even worse than the gallant nag. The people, that is the bone and sinew, are woefully behind the electioneering times. They cannot be induced to comprehend that they are interested in the Presidential election.

"What's Hecuba to him, or he to Hecuba?"

The paisano never looks beyond the Juez de Paz or the 'Comandante' of his district. He understands thoroughly however, that gin and 'carne con cuero' have some mysterious affinity with politics, and he willingly mounts his Pingo and gallops to any distance in order to enjoy one and the other. His 'Comandante' tells him to give a viva for Rocha. Of course he will, for he goes straight to the conclusion that Rocha has furnished the feast. With the same impartiality he will shout for Irigoyen, for Celman, for any one. This factitious enthusiasm, however, only lasts while the expectation of more gin is lively; when the feast is over the 'paisano' becomes sulky, and it is then difficult to get him to cheer for any one, and the leaders are obliged to give him up as a bad job. This is the element the different candidates have to manipulate to their respective advantage, not only in this province; it is the same in all the others. It is plain, therefore, why candidates seek the support of the Provincial Government. Of course, it is very immoral; it is contrary to the first elements of democracy; it fills the country with irresponsible, ignorant, tyrranical 'caudillos'; "mais que voulez-vous?" If the mass of the people are not prepared for a democratic form of Government, why we must make the best of it; and that best is understood to be, slavish subjection on the one side, and irresponsible domination on the other.

These circumstances render it rather difficult to make a forecast of the result of the elections in Santa Fé, The Government, that is the gentle Cura, is a partisan of Dr. Irigoyen; but the Government party is very divided. One of the candidates for the governorship is Col. Iriondo. He also is an Irigoyenista; but he is disliked by the gentle Cura, who favours his Minister, who was at first a partisan of Juarez Celman. Galvez, as Minister, is turning all the Iriondistas out of office, Col. Cordoba being one of the last. The latter was supposed to have possessed great influence, but it is a commentary on what I have said of the character of the people. When Cordoba was no longer 'Gefe Politico' or 'Comandante,' it was found that he had no personal power whatever. Juarez Celman has a strong party here amongst the young people, Irigoyen amongst the older conservative element. He, however, has hurt himself in the estimation of his respectable adherents in Rosario by his open ly supporting Col. Iriondo. His friends here urged him to use his influence to have an outsider elected as Governor, and so get rid of the disgraceful clique that have misgoverned the province for so many years. But of course Dr Irigoyen had to strengthen his own hands, without interesting himself in the good or bad administration of Santa Fé. I am told he did propose Dr Severo Gonzalez, as a candidate for the governorship, but the proposition was received with shouts of derision by the owls of sleepy Hollow. Dr Gonzalez! why he is a Rosarino! He is a Liberal! They say he is an honest man!

> "Approach them like the rugged Russian bear,
> The arm'd rhinoceros, or the Hyrcan tiger;
> Take any shape but that!"

I suppose it is a political fact that "lying, slandering and evil speaking" are legitimate weapons in electioneering times, on the same principal that "all is fair in Love or War;" but for us outsiders, it is very bewildering to hear two diametrically opposite accounts of the same incident, or to have one individual placed before us by one party as a Pandora's box of virtues, and hear from the other party that the same individual is a villain of the darkest die. I should have sent you an account of the fracas in San Lorenzo, where one poor devil got his quietus, and one of the Candidates lost a voter, had it been possible to get to the truth. However, I know the readers of the STANDARD would lose nothing, as you usually publish the most peppery and romantic version to be found in the other papers, and my inner thoughts were justified. You gave a thrilling account of the row; whether accurate or not is of very little moment; the main incident, the assassination of the Captain of Police, was true enough.

Mind I don't call this writing on politics, a thing I detest, I am only skirmishing round the field of battle and giving the readers of the STANDARD an idea of the manœuvres of the combatants, the tactics of the generals and the conduct of the rank and file.

Yesterday we had the severest storm of thunder and lightning that has occurred here for many months, or I may say years. The flashes of ignited electricity were incessant, vivid and very close, while the crackling of the thunder put one in mind of Byron's magnificent description of a storm on the Jura mountains. The rain, to make use of quite a new expression, came down in torrents; something like what I remember on the Isthmus of Panama, in the rainy season. This is just what everybody wants, farmers, quinteros and estancieros. It is worth millions to the province. Notwithstanding the long duration of the storm, and constant discharges of electricity, I have not heard that the lightning has done any damage of struck any building. This seems to confirm the statement that a net of telephone wires over a town is an effectual protection against the electric fluid. I know in former times such a storm would have left its marks on a dozen buildings. Talking of telephone wires: the indefatigable Captain Manton will soon remove to his new and spacious offices in Calle Libertad.

ENGLISH IMMIGRATION.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir,

Will you kindly allow me a corner in your esteemed journal for the following?

I noticed in your issue of some days back a letter deploring the scarcity of English emigration to this country, etc. Now, it strikes me as strange that it has never occurred to any one to induce the East Indian cooly to settle in South America. I have only just arrived from England, after nearly six years' residence in various parts of India and Burmah, and was struck with the wonderfully high wages—a dollar per diem—that labourers obtain here. The average daily pay of an East Indian cooly is from 4 to 8 annas per diem. Now, taking the rupee at one shilling and eightpence, which is the highest point it is ever likely to reach, this represents from "one to two reals" per day, a slight difference to the wages paid to the European labourers here!

Now, as one who knows the language, the people, their customs and religious prejudices thoroughly, and having at various times and places, during six years' residence in India and Burmah, employed cooly labour on contract work, as navvies, and in various other capacities, I maintain that the Indian cooly, if properly managed, is as good a workman as the European. He may not, perhaps, possess the same amount of physical strength, but, at the same time, his endurance is proverbial. and he can work all through the hottest weather, and in climates which would soon knock up the white labourer, such, for example, as Paraguay, and the other semi-tropical provinces, which are often fatal to the European, on account the fever, but which would exactly suit the cooly, as the climate resembles that of India.

For loading ships at Rosario, or for field labourers, especially in the agricultural colonies of Santa Fé and others, the cooly is pre-eminently fitted, and is managed, according to my experience, with far greater ease than the European labourer. In fact, there is no work that the European can accomplish that the cooly cannot do at one-fourth the price.

Every year thousands of these men leave Calcutta to seek employment in Demerara and the Mauritius, usually on a five years' contract. The "syrangs," or "capatazes," who bring them out, make immense gains on the transaction both out of employer and the employed; but although the former are fully aware of this labour they must have, and accordingly submit to pay these "syrangs" the amount demanded per diem for each cooly engaged, it pays the sugar planters and others, of Demerara and the Mauritius, to import cooly labour in spite of the above impositions; why should it not pay to bring them here?

For instance, why should not a company be formed, called say the "Argentine General Labour Supply Association." Let this company, as a preliminary step, ascertain from the employers of labour, the Government, sugar planters, estancieros, contractors and others, the number of labourers they should be likely to require. Having done so, the company could send an agent to the great East Indian labour markets, with power to induce so many thousand men to come to this country. The company could contract with the above-named employers of labour to supply so many men, for so long, at so much, "under the present market rate of labour."

The price paid to the coolies themselves would be a matter of contract between them and the company, and would not concern the employers at all, wages being payable to the company, who would be responsible for the carrying out of the emigrant contract. The difference between the amount paid to the company per man, by the labour employers, and the amount paid by the company to each man, as per contract entered into in India, would represent a large profit, and would certainly give a handsome dividend to the shareholders.

The amount of capital required would not be very large, but this, together with all other details, would be a matter for arrangement, should any members of your large, wealthy and go-a-head city be inclined to embark in the above scheme.

Should this idea meet with approval, I am prepared to give further particulars on the subject of Indian labour, and am also willing to proceed at once to India as agent to such company, and engage labour for as many thousands as might be required. I may add, that November and December are the months when Indian labour can be best induced to migrate, on account of the grain season.

But I have already overstepped the limits which this letter should occupy in your valuable paper, and must bring it to a close. Thanking you for your kindness in publishing the above,

I am, dear Sir,
Faithfully yours,
H. R. C.

MISS ETHEL ARDEN'S FIRST APPEARANCE IN SPANISH.

The first performance of Claudian in Spanish took place at the Opera House on Saturday last, when a large audience assembled; the principal attraction being, our favorite English actress Miss Arden, making her début in Spanish.

Our readers are acquainted with the argument of this classical play and will remember this lady's impersonation of the rôle of Almida in English. On this occasion she undertook the same character in Spanish. For some days past, the event has been the topic of conversation, as to whether she would or would not succeed in the arduous task she had set herself. Not only did she succeed, but she also achieved a great triumph.

On making her appearance there was a general movement amongst the audience, which seemed to a certain extent to unnerve her, but after speaking her first sentence, she regained her usual composure and went through the part without a single hitch.

Miss Arden spoke every word most distinctly, and was perfectly understood; but of course as is natural, there was the English accent quite distinguishable, which seemed to please the audience and lend a charm to her performance.

At the end of the first act, during the speech in which she tells Claudian of her love for him, the audience seemed spell-bound, and on the fall of the curtain, such a burst of applause, as we seldom have the pleasure of hearing, resounded through the theatre, and the fair 'artiste' appeared before the curtain together with Claudian, no less than 3 times, amidst the cheers of the audience.

The rôle of Claudian was taken by Mr Latham, who also appeared for the first time in Spanish; but the task was not so great for him, being as he is, perfectly conversant with the language.

Those who saw him play the part in English, will remember his being at his best, and in Spanish he was equally good.

The remaining portion of the caste was undertaken by the members of Señor Mackay's Company, who went through their parts in a most commendable manner.

Last night, the piece was repeated, when there was not a seat to be had in the theatre, and both Miss Arden and Mr. Latham ought to be proud of the reception they received; for at the fall of every act, they were called forth two or three times, and at the finish of the piece when they appeared in front for the third time the cheers that greeted them must have been very gratifying indeed.

We congratulate Miss Arden on her Spanish performance most cordially, and wish her the success she so well merits to-night, when she takes her farewell; on which occasion (Claudian in Spanish) will be given for the last time, after which Miss Arden will appear as Lady Macbeth (in English) in the celebrated sleep-walking scene.

The performance will conclude with a Spanish Commedietta in which Señor Zamacois will play the leading part.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAMSON

On Sunday morning, after a lingering illness, Mr. A. Williamson, of the leading English firm of Milligan & Williamson died, at the comparatively early age of 50. Deceased was an eminent member of our foreign commercial body, and was managing partner of the firm here for the last 20 years. His loss will long be felt in English circles in Buenos Ayres. Mr. Williamson was a thorough merchant, and a kind genial friend, beloved by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. Ever active and useful in the affairs of his community we had the frequent good fortune of being thrown in contact with him. He was in every sense qualified to be a representative man, and had he remained in England we doubt not he would have held equal rank with his distinguished brother. In this country, however, the representative duties of a foreign merchant are most limited, and beyond the jurisdiction of church, hospital or school, those duties rarely extend. During our long acquaintance we must testify to the great interest he took in promoting everything that contributed to the welfare of his countrymen here, or that of their institutions. His funeral, yesterday evening, was one of the largest we ever attended, and the crowds of friends who assembled at his house, and of others who met the cortege at the British cemetery eloquently testified to the great esteem in which he was held and the widefelt sorrow at his loss. We shall long miss him, he was a useful, good man, "nihil tetigit non ornavit."

BAHIA BLANCA MOLE.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

Dear Sir:

Knowing you always take interest in the progress of matters in this country we send you by this post a "photo" of the Bahia Blanca new Mole, which shows also the old Mole in the foreground, now taken alway.

The tide at time of photographing was about low water. You will perhaps notice the hydraulic machinery at the end of present mole.

Yours truly.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The city was startled yesterday with the melancholy news of an attempt on the life of Dr. Bernardo Irigoyen, one of our most likely candidates for the future Presidency. All that we can gather from the few details at hand is that Dr. Irigoyen was at the railway station Monteagudo, Tucuman, waiting for the train to start, when a villain, named Lorenzo Diaz, approached the carriage and drawing his revolver, fired twice at Dr. Irigoyen, who most miraculously escaped. At the discharge of the shots Mr. Irigoyen's friends crowded round and overpowered the would be assassin, who was at once taken into custody. This is the worst feature as yet of this presidential campaign, and the universal indignation expressed yesterday by members of every political party shows that assassination forms, we are happy to say, no part of the electioneering programme.

All the English houses of business in this city had their doors partially closed yesterday, as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Mr. Williamson, whose funeral took place yesterday.

Affairs up in the Provinces seem to be going from bad to worse; they have pulled down the triumphal arches at San Pedro that were erected to welcome Dr Irigoyen, and a Catamarquenian hide broker tried to shoot the candidate at the railway station. How we wish these elections were over.

Messrs Basualdo, Peña, Anchorena, and others named on the Boulevard Committee are busily occupied with the business, and we hear, for a fact, that "coute que coute" the Boulevard will be carried out.

We have received a note from a city friend entirely approving of the Hydropathic Establishment scheme which we announced last weak. Our friend says that be is glad to see the proposal, and being a firm believer in the treatment should be pleased to support the scheme. Good news for our friends on the Napostá.

An adjourned special general meeting of the trustees and subscribers to the British Hospital will be held today at 77 Calle Maipu at 3 o'clock. As important business will be transacted in connection with the new Hospital building. We have been requested by the Committee of management to solicit a full attendance of the trustees and subscribers to the institution.

Very alarming rumours were current yesterday about the shipment of arms to La Plata, the National Government having sent down a gunboat to intercept the consignment. It may be all bosh, but the matter is spoken of, also the sending of some regimedts to La Plata. Verily the times are sadly out of joint.

Miss Ethel Arden's benefit in the Opera House is the great attraction for to-night. Everybody will be there. Miss Arden has selected Claudio el Maldito (Spanish translation of Claudian, the Accursed, by our indefatigable Dan). for her benefit piece, in which she has already scored a decided success. The "sleep-walking" scene in Macbeth will also be given by our favorite artiste.

The Rev. Dr, James Smith will preach on Sunday next, at twelve o'clock, at the Cabaña, district of Cañuelas.

The resident Dons were in a state of great excitement on Sunday about the ultimatum to Germany. It will be a sea-fight, (until it spreads into a general war) and the betting is rather against Mein Herr's chance of success on the rolling billow. The Germans, however, say they will chaw up the Spanish fleet.

Mad dogs are appearing on the scene rather earlier than usual this year. Boy badly bitten in Calle Billinghurst on Sunday, and the nearest policeman was too fat to overtake the canine offender when he gave chase. Talking of dogs. It is proposed to make Gragera President of the Zoophiles' Society. If his wardrobe were a little less seedy, there would be no objection to such an appointment. There is no man with larger bowels of compassion for the brute creation than poor Gragera, who could be rich, if he could only get hold of what is rightfully due to him.

There was a sharp tram collision at the corner of Libertad and Charcas on Sunday at 2 p.m. One poor horse had his leg broken, and was left there in torture till night, and we believe all night. Where were the Zoophiles?

An Argentine Literary Society was started on Sunday with great enthusiasm, and we wish it every success. It seems rather curious that a Literary Society was not started long ago in this land of born poets, authors, scribblers, spouters etc.

The result of all the Pension voting by Congress is that the item in the War budget alone under this head comes now to 800,000 Nats yearly.

EDITOR'S TABLE

The weather was celestial on Sunday, and "Alta Vida" went to Palermo and drove about. What strikes an observer at Palermo is the great majority of Nobodies driving about and trying to look as Somebody as they can. Where is the line supposed to be drawn as regards vehicles, as some of those that pace the magic ring are certainly first cousins to a baker's cart.

The Damas de Misericordia are working hard to make their big charity ball on the 26th a success, which it fully promises to be. We hope the fair dames will make better arrangements in the topcoat department than at the Bolsa Ball. Some people look on a topcoat and an umbrella in the same light; but this is a mistake in ethics. A topcoat is not fair game; an umbrella is.

The special Commission, named to look into the material (we will say nothing about the moral) aspect of things in the Custom House, reports everything in that venerable place as having long ago arrived at the dogs. The mole is so rotten that the next Hopkins storm will do for it; and the Engineers' Department has received orders to draw up plans for a new mole as soon as possible, or a little sooner.

Madame Letrazzini had a grand success as Valentina in the Huguenots on Saturday and Sunday. She is far and away superior to that much overrated artist Borghi-Mamo. Madlle Pattini is the loveliest Queen of Navarre ever seen on the Buenos Ayres boards. Signoretti is a capital Raoul; no shouting, but every inch on artistic singer. The house was crammed on both nights.

Formosa wants 5,000 nats. to build a Town Hall. Such monstrous extravagance should not be encouraged. What will Formosa want next? A Boulevard, perhaps?

Is there any guttapercha in this country? If so, now is the time to trot it out; as the lastest news from Central Africa is that the supply there is all but exhausted.

The Criminal Judge has passed sentence on Lamothe. Three years.

There is nervous news from the Southern camps, where it has rained like blue blaz—onry; and the irrepressible Salado is at its old tricks, getting out of bed. All the "arroyos" are also up and stirring; and several Chascomus districts are inundated.

The Rural Society has given its whole mind to the preparation of a Scab Law and sent it to Congress where it is pretty certain to turn up at the massacre of the innocents next month.

The Tucuman papers complain of mere schoolboys there being allowed to take part in political matters. Their cheek and insolence to their seniors and betters is something "pasmoso." Racy of the soil. "Gracioso."

The beggars of Paris have a newspaper devoted to their interests, in which notice is given of weddings of rich people, baptisms, and other gatherings where coppers are likely to be picked up. The paper seems to be purely the organ of begging impostors.

The two Bs (Bakers and Barbers) in Rosario are fighting amongst themselves. The former are all against one new bakery, the "Castellano," which gives good bread and fair weight. The shavers are all furious with two of their 'gremio' who have reduced the usual charges 20 per cent to attract business. Continual "fites" are the consequence.

A Rosario colleague coolly complains that it is a great hardship for 'industriales del pais' that consumers have no confidence in their productions; and makers of 'fideos,' for instance, have to send to Europe for boxes, and put forged Italian labels on them, to make them go down with the public. The naiveté of this admission is really admirable.

As soon as the Paraguayan Government manages to sell a lot of its land under the new law, a pretty stiff rise in the Contribucion Directa on same may be confidently expected. Nevertheless there is some nibbling at these lands going on.

Now that the insect season is coming on we strongly recommend the following recipe against stings. An old fellow who is nearly a hundred years in the country gave it to us:—"Tincture of tobacco, 200 parts; boracic acid, 6 parts; salicylic acid, 12 parts; carbolic acid, 6 parts; oil of melissa (balm), 1 part.

The relaying of the 'trottoirs' of the city is another costly joke. Their present state is far worse than their first.

What's the meaning of all the naval officers on leave being ordered to join their ships. Are we going to wrest the Falkland Islands from Great Britain; or is it preparatory to paying off the whole fleet and laying it up in ordinary? The latter is what ought to be done, considering the pitiful state of the Treasury.

The pieces of the statue of Admiral Brown are all safely transhipped to the lighters that are to take them up the Riachuelo to the Southern Railway bridge 'en route' for Adrogue. We hear, the sculptor has done his work well. What a pity to put the effigy of the hero in such an out-of-the-way place—we were going to say hole.

Tucuman advices say that money is profoundly scarce up there now. This is a chronic complaint in the Interior; and the National Bank has not been able to cure it.

The Geographical Society intend treating themselves to an expedition to the Andes when the weather gets fine. The change of air will do them good, and they will, no doubt, bring back some valuable information about the Cordillera.

Our long-suffering colleague the Pais of Santiago del Estero is again in trouble. It was 'empastelado' the other night by some patriots or policeman of an opposite political persuasion. The virility with which electioneering is carried on in the Intertor is quite unknown here.

Gold	41.40 o/o prem.
Cedulas E	81½
Cedulas F	80½
Cedulas G	88

The week opens with a sluggish gold market and a stationary aspect in the speculation. The premium this morning opened in advance of last week's prices, but there was a weak tendency about affairs at the ring. The bull King sold for this month, but bought in for October. About 100,000 dollars changed hands for cash at 41.50 and 41.40 o/o premium. Operations for the end of the month embraced $280,000; the market opened at 41.30, rose to 41.50, fell to 41, and closed at 41.10. Seventy five thousand dollars were sold for the end of October at 40.50 to 40.

There was a cold snap in the Cedula F market this morning and holders of the Series looked decidedly glum. One of the Bank brokers entered the ring and banged away a few hundred thousand, upsetting the market and driving down the quotation to 80½ for cash. A few thousand Cedulas E changed hands for cash at 81½. Operations in Series F embraced 173,000 for cash at 81 and 80½, and 160,000 for the 30th at 81. Series G ruled more active than usual. Fair amounts were sold at 88 for cash and for the 15th, at 87⅝-⅞ for the 30th, and at 87 for the end of October. Nothing was reported in National Bank stock; last week's slight spurt has apparently died out.

The exchange market ruled dull and rates were weak in view of the dead-lock in operations. Rates on London are quoted at 46⅞ to 47d. The money market continues easy for paper and always slightly tight for gold. There are rumors in the market of the proposed issue of paper money assuming tangible form this week and some parties think that the Deputies will increase the amount voted in the Senate from six millions to 12 millions. This increase, it is said, will be supported to meet the demands of the busy season. The rumor has a speculative perfume, but if the forced currency bill is voted this week, the increase in the issue will no doubt begin immediately.

The forced currency bill will meet with strong opposition in the Chamber of Deputies, and several of the members of the Finance Committee are much opposed to the repudiation contained in the fourth article. The opposition will necessarily attack the bill, and the discussion promises to be a very lively affair. It is to be hoped that the protest of the commercial body of this market will exert a healthy influence in the debate and succeed in defeating the fourth article, referring to payments of gold contracts drawn up before the decrees of forced currency were published. The whole market is in favor of the 1876 law, and there will be a storm if Congress sanctions the obnoxious clause in the Bill.

Telegrams from Genoa announce that the Italian steamer Regina Margherita left that port on Saturday with 900 emigrants bound for these shores. She is expected to arrive here at the end of the month. The country needs 50,000 new arrivals for the harvest of this season. All advices from Europe point to a turn in the wheat market. This is good news for the Santa Fé Colonists, who expect an unparalleled wheat crop this year. A rise in the European wheat market means millions to this country. Advices from Santa Fé report most satisfactory prospects, but it is feared that a general scarcity of hands will be felt, as the influx of immigrants is not as great as expected.

The low value of wool in Europe and the unsatisfactory prospects of the article lead produce men to suppose that farmers will be in no hurry to send their wool to market this year. Some consignees opine that, if the premium on gold falls to 30 o/o, all the wools will be sent to deposit, and there are already symptoms of this happening in the market, although not a fleece has yet arrived in the Once or Constitucion markets. Wool men are not satisfied with a premium of 40 o/o on gold, a rise proportional to the fall in the value of wool, and they only expect much activity if gold rises still higher. Wool in Europe has not been so cheap as at present for many years, and it is to be hoped that the market has touched bottom at last.

The Commercial Court has decided that the fine on bills of exchange not properly stamped or not drawn up according to the law shall be imposed on those parties only who sign the bill in this market. This sentence is important, as it upsets the Commercial Judge's late decision, imposing a fine on these grounds not only on those who signed the bill in this market, but also on those who endorsed it abroad; this happened to a bill of exchange on Havre that was recently protested and returned, but the decision of the Commercial Court settles the matter and limits the fine to the signatures in this market.

The Provincial Bank drew exchange to-day at 3.50 to 3,51 frcs. and 33⅞d. for amounts not exceeding 50,000 fcs. or £2,000. Larger amounts to be drawn at conventional rates. This step of the Bank produced an excellent impression on the market, and the gold premium weakened in consequence.

Little was done in gold during afterhours. A few hundred thousand dollars were sold, and the premium closed at 41, sellers. The speculation wore a dead-and-alive aspect and affairs looked weak.

The following is the text of the protest of the commercial body of this market presented to Congress to-day. The petition is aimed against the Forced Currency Bill, sanctioned by the Senate and at present under discussion in the Deputies. The following is the document:—

B. Aires, Sept. 14, 1885.

To the Hon. House of National Deputies.

We, the undersigned merchants of this market, make an appeal to the right of petition, granted by the Constitution of the country, and beg to state before the honourable House:

That, as the welfare and progress of the nation depend on the removal of the present financial difficulties, on the growth of our home and foreign credit, and on the efficacy of obligations pledged in contract—the basis of commercial honesty—we cannot remain indifferent to the Forced Currency Bill which is at present under discussion.

We believe that the following evils will follow, if the honorable deputies confirm the vote of the Senate on the IV. article of the bill:—

1st—A violation of private contracts will be authorized, under circumstances that do not in the least call for such an extreme measure.

2nd—Innumerable lawsuits will arise questioning the constitutionality of such a law.

3rd—The law will obstruct, perhaps for ever, the development of credit, and may produce a commercial crisis by its disturbing influence in transactions.

4th—The influx of capital into the country will be stopped, and an efflux of specie will immediately ensue.

5th—The law will create a reaction in the standing order of affairs arrived at after so many sacrifices suffered in the nine months that have elapsed since the publication of the decree of the Executive.

Any further enumerations of the many evils that would follow in the wake of such a law is needless, as the honest purpose and information of the honorable members will excuse us from enumerating the baneful results in detail; furthermore, if we consider that any advantage arising from such a law can only benefit, at the expense of an equal number of sufferers, a few who never expected it, and who by the absence of such a law would not be injured, we can frame with feelings of confidence the following petition:—

That the H. House of Deputies throw out the IVth Article of the Forced Currency Bill, sanctioned by the Senate and sent to the Deputies for final reading.

That another Article be substituted fixing the paying power of the forced currency tender according to the law of 1876, which has been applied with uniformity to all the Courts, and which the commercial body and the Banks have faithfully observed, since the decree of the 9th January last.

It is Justice, &c.

The sale of the Arraga property on the Flores Road, on Sunday, was an event of importance and attracted a very large and respectable number of bidders. The property years gone bye was known as the Capa Negra quinta, and was purchased in the year 1873 at a very high price by Mr. Arraga. Although pleasantly situated on the Flores Road, close to Caballito, it is not by any means the most desirable, since parts of it are very low, and new and imaginary streets, or lines of streets, have been drawn, which limit the depths of the lots to a number of yards which precludes the possibility of quintas or large gardens, so desirable to every house in the suburbs. The best lots in the whole property lay within 140 yards of Mr. Ledesma's quinta and were knocked down; the first lot, 10x72, for 4,200% per vara front; the next lot, 10x71, for 4,000% per vara front, Mr. Escalante buyer; another good lot, facing on the Flores Road, 18 by 50, sold for 135 m/n per vara front, or 65% per square vara. The sales of the other lots possess no feature of importance, they fetched from 38 to 25% per quare yard. The result of the auction would possibly have been more favorable had the property been better advertised and had it not been split up into fractions, which rendered it impossible to buy a good site for a decent quinta, but the very crowded attendance showed the interest taken by a very wide circle of well-to-do people in Flores Road property. Accustomed as we are to land auctions in the suburbs, do not remember seeing a greater attendance of first-class people, many of whom were utterly ignorant of the auction, but, driving by or in the tramway, they were attracted to the sale by the large crowd on the road. We should say that about half the property was sold, and the lots adjacent to the railway stand over for some future day. However, enough has been sold to result in the breaking up of the Common, which has existed there now for so many years, and we shall in all probability have a few nice villas or country houses built on the sites facing the Flores Road. We may add that there is now much enquiry for houses to rent or to buy on that road, but very few to be had; several parties wished to rent the fine Ledesma quinta, but we hear that it will be sold and not rented, and the quinta belonging to Dr. Monez Cazon, which for so many years lay neglected, is now being fixed up and a fine house built on this well situated property

The death of Mr. Williamson threw a gloom over our foreign commercial circle, of which he was for so many years so prominent a member. His funeral this afternoon at the British Cemetery was one of the largest we ever attended. Deceased was much esteemed and respected by all, and we tender to his sorrowing family every expression of the deepest sympathy at their irreparable loss.

A Brazilian paper states that the Captain of the steamer Pernambuco saw a wreck off the Esparacha reefs, completely abandoned, She appeared to be a German vessel.

The British barque Cilurnum, which left New York (?) on the 2nd July with a cargo of coal, for San Francisco, took fire at 9.50 a.m. on the 20th August in Lat. 19° 4' N. and Long. 58° 15' W. of Greenwich. The crew, comprising 32 men, were picked up by the barque Titia and conveyed to Pernambuco. One sailor perished on board. The Master of the Cilurnum was H. W. Eadb.

A large boat of the Argentine man-of-war Constitucion was capsized on Saturday in front of San Isidro by a sudden gust of wind. She was manned by 14 sailors and in command of Captain H. Oliva, 2nd commander of the Constitucion. The gunboat Pilcomayo and the port authorities of San Fernando sent help immediately and all were saved with the exception of two sailors; one who went under, tired and too exhausted to hold on to the capsized boat any longer, and the other an Englishman and an excellent swimmer, who perished by his own imprudence. As a whale boat passed by, he swam towards her, but the heartless fellows aboard would not stop to pick him up, and he was drowned whilst endeavoring to swim back to his wrecked companions. Captain Oliva and the 12 survivors were picked up, but the former is so affected by the loss of his two men that he is seriously unwell. Captain Oliva is one of the most promising young officers in the navy. He served for several years in the Spanish navy and surveyed and buoyed San Blás harbour with his superior Lieut. Col. Rivadavia and Lieutenant Leroux. His legion of friends hope to see him soon well again.

Mr. Basualdo's sale of wool is the talk of the produce market. This wealthy estanciero has sold his wool in the South, ten thousand arrobas, at 100% per arroba, and he will begin shearing his flocks on the 1st prox., as the wool must be delivered up to the 10th of November. The wool from his Northern estancias he has not yet sold, but he expects to get over 83% per arroba. The wools from the South command a higher price, as they are lighter than those of the North. The buyer of the 10,000 arrobas is a well known French 'artista'.

On the 27th inst. Mr. Wm. Black, the popular and much esteemed land broker and auctioneer of the South of this Province, will hold a great sale of rams in Bahia Blanca. The auction will come off in the fine new corralon, in front of the Southern Railway station in that rising town, and a champagne lunch will be provided to buyers. The rams offered for sale are Lincoln, Rambouillet, and crosses of these two breeds. The animals have been picked in the well known estancias Horquetas of Muggeridge & Lightoller, Los Paraisos of Dodds, Loma Amarilla of Newton, &c. This is an excellent opportunity for sheepfarmers of the far South, and the auction mart will no doubt be crowded the day of the sale. This auction is another feature of Bahia Blanca progress. Active shipments of wool will take place at that port this season. We back Bahia Blanca against Rosario in the next ten years' race for progress. The new Southern Railway wharf is now finished and the Government has given orders for its immediate inspection. It will be opened to the public next month, and this means a new era for the embryonic Liverpool of the South.
